COPY RIGHT SECURED.

"A Calendar for the Christian Era, combining the Julian and Gregorian modes of reckoning time, by James Rumley, of N. C.

The subscriber having copy-righted this most valuable of all the "Calendars" ever before offered to the public, will be prepared in a few days to supply the demand for them to any extent.

Many attempts have been made, from time to time, to secure a Calendar, by which all the dates of the Christian Era could be accurately, and at the same time readily, found. These attempts have heretofore signally failed because the authors have sought to condense too much, and because they were really not conversant with the subject of which they treated, and which they vainly endeavored to elucidate.

I claim for the Calendar now presented, perfect simplicity of arrangement, combined with the most infallible accuracy. The plan is so simple that any one who can use an ordinary Almanac, or Counting House Calendar, cannot fail to see clearly into the working of this. Time past, present or future can be immediately found. Its accuracy will bear the test of the most rigid scrutiny. I invite criticisms, and confidently appeal to an enlightened public judgment for a frank expression of opinion as to its merits.

To supply a want long felt, the author has appended to the Calendar, under the head of "Explanatory Remarks," a succinct, but most valuable history of the Julian Calendar from the time of Julius Cæsar, and of the astronomical causes which led to the change made by Pope Gregory XIII. in 1582. These notes alone are worth the price of the Calendar.

If any object to the space the Calendar occupies, the objection is answered by the reply that any attempt, at condensation would be a sacrifice of simplicity, the fatal rock on which every previous attempt has been stranded.

Every professional man, every mechanic and farmer, all merchants and tradesmen should supply themselves with copies, at once. Price $1.

Agents wanted in every city and county in the United States. STEPHEN D. POOL.

OUR TERMS.

THE SENTINEL is issued every morning (Sunday excepted) at the following rates:

For Daily, per year,	$10 00

" one month,	1 00

Our terms are invariably in advance. Money may be sent us by the Rail Road conductors or the Express Companies.

Be on the Alert.

There are numbers of honest men in the Convention, who are not politicians, nor are they well posted in the tactics of politicians. They are disposed to do what is right and best for their constituency, but the web of national politics is so tangled, that none but the initated can hope to unravel it. This class of gentlemen are liable to be misled by designing men, who present a fair outside, and put on a serious pretence of their anxiety for a settlement of our national difficulties, but who are wholly committed to any programme the Radicals may put forth. We beg gentlemen to beware of these pretences.

We learn that parties in the Convention profess to have received positive information from Washington, that a compromise is about to be effected between President Johnson and the Congress upon the Howard amendment, and that therefore, the Convention should hold itself in readiness to act promptly in supporting the measure.

We believe the statement is a fabrication, without a particle of foundation. That such statements may have been received from Washington, we do not doubt. Nor do we doubt that there are persons in this city, who are in confidental correspondence with the Radicals in Washington. But that there is any truth in the statement that President Johnson is about to stultify himself by an utter abandonment of his policy and principles, we do not believe.—Nay, in the absence of positive proof, we deny that there is a particle of truth in the statement.

But a few days have elapsed since Mr. Seward, at Auburn, N. Y., in a speech, unequivocally re-affirmed the President's position to be still the policy of the administration. He declared that the Southern States had fully resumed their Constitutional relations of allegiance to the Union, and that they were justly entitled to representation in Congress, and that whenever those States presented themselves before the Congress with duly elected loyal Senators and Representatives, that body should admit them. This is well known to have been the position of the President at all times, and nothing has fallen from his lips to the contrary.

Moreover, the last National Intelligencer, which it is well known speaks the sentiments of the President, denounces the Howard programme as offensive, and as containing the identical elements of the propositions of the Reconstruction Committee.

So far as we can see, all the essential principles of the Radicals are concentrated in the Howard scheme, and if adopted, will as certainly degrade and embarrass the States and the Southern people as effectually, as by the adoption of the more open programme of Thad. Stevens. If therefore, the Convention have an inkling to taste the sweets of Radicalism in the South, why send a mission to Washington?—Why mislead the public by a pretended anxiety to find out what is not known, when every child in the land knows full well, what the Radical Congress will do, if the President and the people do not put them down. If the Convention wants a burial in North Carolina from which there never can be a resurrection—if it is envious of political martyrdon and wishes to go down to posterity with the foul blot sticking to it, let it adopt the Howard programme or adopt any Radical measures, or send the Commission talked of to Washington. The day would come in such an event, when every one involved in that folly would loathe the day they were ever connected with the Convention of 1865-6.

The Hon. Reverdy Johnson writes a letter to John Hogan, of Missouri, in which he says that the Supreme Court, at the last term, did decide against the constitutionality of the Missouri test-oath, and that the reason the decision was not made public was owing to the fact that the Judge, selected to deliver the opinion of the Court, did not have time to prepare such an one as the importance and gravity of the question required. This will be done during the recess, and the opinion be delivered at the next term.

Mr. Johnson adds that "when this is done, the cause of constitutional liberty and religious freedom will be secured against all attempts to strike at either, that may be made in periods of temporary excitement and oblivion of the rights of the citizen and the true interests of the country."

Sound Views.

Our friend Hines, of the Old North State, alluding to the formation of the Constitutional Union party, composed of the conservative men of the North and South, without regard to their former political predilections, says:

"When the great object for which it was organized is accomplished—when restoration is completed and reconciliation is accomplished, other issues of a national character may spring up upon which parties may reorganize, either under old or new names; but for the present, this is the all-absorbing issue, and in its support old party distinctions should, if necessary to its success, be forgotten. We will never consent to accept any of the propositions now pending before either House of Congress. A firm and dignified adherence to the President's plan by the people of the South, and the conservatives of the North, acting all together, will ultimately secure the success of that plan. Of this, we do not entertain a doubt. Then let our people wait with patience, which is the only dignified course they can pursue."

A Good Move.

We intended to express our approval of the proposition of Mr. McCorkle, of Stanly, in Convention, to amend the Constitution so as to prevent in future, the election of members of its own body by the Legislature, to offices of trust and profit, while they are members. Other matters prevented our alluding to it. If therefore, it is the set purpose of the Convention to go on amending the Constitution and legislating ad libitum, which we believe it has no authority for doing, we commend to its favorable notice, the proposition of Mr. McCorkle. There is no part of the duty of the Legislature which costs the people so much money and so seriously interferes with prompt and proper legislation, as the elections conferred upon it. When the Legislature is filled with candidates for office, there is little done for the time except electioneering. Indeed, the people ought not to send a man to the Legislature, who makes it a stepping stone to a more desirable office. Legislators should be elected to do the people's work, and not their own. Hence when a Legislator makes up his mind to become a candidate for another office, he should resign at once. This may become a great source of corruption, log-rolling and management, by which the wishes of the people may often be defeated.

Of course our remarks do not apply to the past history of the Legislature. The practice has generally obtained until it has become a custom, and hence no one is blamable. Yet it appears to us, it is time to arrest the evil. The action of the last Legislature looked very much as if it were useless for any outsider to become a candidate, if a member of the Legislature desired the same office. We believe Mr. McCorkle's amendment would work well and correct a growing evil.

A Word to North Carolina Radicals.

There are delegates in the Convention and there are a few persons in the State, who are evidently ready to accept the Radical programme for the Southern States. They profess to be better satisfied with Mr. Howard's amendment in the U. S. Senate, than with the plans of others, but they are all of the same stripe—all ignore the Executive authority—all propose to amend the Constitution so as to give support to the Civil Rights bill—all ignore and cancel the authority of the President to pardon,—all are degrading to the South, and propose to place the government and control of the South in the hands of the blacks and a class of men, who in past days have not been recognised as fit for the legislative and judicial positions of the country. The disfranchising clause of Mr. Howard's amendment, according to the interpretation of the Northern Radical press, disfranchises all in the South, who heretofore filled the office of U. S. Senator or Representative, Postmaster, Collector, Governor, Counsellor of State, Judge, Solicitor, officers of the army and navy, members of the Legislature, Justices of the Peace; in fact all who have ever taken the oath to support the Constitution of the United States and who afterwards gave "aid and comfort" to the "rebellion." This is clearly not the legal construction of the amendment. No man can be said to have violated that oath, except those who were under its obligations at the time they adhered to the Southern cause. Yet we observe the former is the construction put upon it at the North.

Now, we advise our strait sect, Radical friends, not to be mealy-mouthed about it. If they are disposed to go in that direction, we advise them to take the whole animal, as presented in the plan of Thad Stevens. We admire Thad's course. He is frank, out and out for what he aims at.—He does not coat the pill he administers. All modifications of his scheme aim at the same thing, but cover it up. Go it gentlemen, the whole, or none!

Mr. McDonald of Moore.

It will be observed, that our friend Mr. McDonald, of Moore, considering himself aggrieved or misrepresented by our notice of his Washington mission resolutions, on yesterday made an explanation. Our remarks were by no means personal, but we are glad we have afforded him an opportunity to make an explanation, which had become necessary, not on account of our remarks, but because of the very general impression produced throughout the State by the preamble and resolutions themselves, that the movement was decidedly Radical, and not only unnecessary, but offensive to the people of the State. Henceforth, if Mr. McDonald, by any subsequent action, does not change that opinion, we shall feel authorized from his explanation to recognize him as an out and out Johnson man, and of course decided in his opposition to Radical measures. But the public will nevertheless inquire, why send a mission to the authorities at Washington?

THE FIRST MARTYR.—Among the graves visited by the ladies of the Richmond Memorial Association on the 31st of May, was that of Henry Wyatt of Edgecombe, the first Confederate soldier killed in regular action in the late war. Wyatt was a Virginian by birth, but was living in Edgecombe county at the commencement of the war, and volunteered in Company A, 1st Regiment North Carolina Infantry, Captain (subsequently Colonel) John L. Bridgers.

HURRICANE AND LOSS OF LIFE.—On Saturday the 26th. ultimo, a hurricane of considerable force passed over a portion of this county, about seven miles south of this town, doing considerable injury to the timber and fences in its course. It struck the house of Mr. James M. Bishop, and took off the upper part of it. Mr. Bishop had left the house, and was standing outside, with his child in his arms. A piece of the falling timber struck him on the side of his head and felled him to the ground, killing him instantly. Providentially the child was only slightly injured.—Hillsboro Recorder.

THE HANGING AT TRENTON.—We learned from a gentleman, who was present yesterday, that three of the four negroes convicted of murder in the Scott case before Judge Warren, at the late term of Jones Superior Court, were hung on Friday last, the fourth one having been pardoned by the Governor.

The boys all made a little talk, in which they confessed their guilt, were all suspended from the same gallows, and died very soon after the dislocation of the fall.—Newbern Times.

Agricultural Societies.

We have on several occasions in the pages of this Journal attempted to induce our farmers to form Agricultural Societies for each county or neighborhood, and at length by their united efforts to set our State Agricultural Society again in operation. It is therefore with peculiar gratification that we have heard of the springing up of county societies in two of the most flourishing counties of the State, New Hanover and Edgecombe. Of course we do not design to intimate the slightest connection between our efforts and the formation of these two promising scions, but we must be permitted to congratulate the members individually and as a body, and to hope that the example they have set may not only produce the happiest social and pecuniary effects, but may also be so intensively followed that soon the whole state may be recovered by a net work of these organizations, each operating harmoniously in its proper sphere, and connected with a state society as a centre of life and light, giving and receiving aid and comfort.

Organized as they generally are, they cannot fail of being productive of the most pleasant effects is a social point of view, bringing about social union and harmony, stimulatign emulation, and bringing each into such close personal relations to practical operations, as must invariably lead to an intimate knowledge of the work before them than could possibly be obtained from books. The plan usually pursued is to appoint a place of meeting at a specified and convenient time and place. Those present organize by appointing President, Secretary and Treasurer, and a Constitution is adopted, defining the duty of the officers and members. The entrance fee is fixed at from one to five dollars, with an annual payment of about half that amount; this serves to pay for indispensable expenses, and a nucleus for a fund to support a Fair, provide premiums, &c. The proceedings of the meetings consist in the reading essays by persons previously appointed for that purpose, and the discussion growing out of the opinions advanced. The meeting then adjourns to inspect the grounds, produce, stock, buildings, &c. of the members at whose house they may have met by previous appointment, and the proceedings conclude by a farmer's dinner, at which the products are inspected and reported on. The next monthly meeting is held at the farm of some other member, as may be agreed upon, and so the spirit of friendly rivalry is kept up, and each one in turn receives his due meed of praise or blame—sometimes, a handsome premium is offered for the best kept or best cultivated farm, the finest stock, butter, fruit, &c., and a corresponding one for the poorest.

These societies can certainly cost but little money; they promote a very pleasant spirit of rivalry, encourage sociability and good neighborhood and afford much desirable assistance and information to the deserving, they instruct the despairing and bring forth to the view and the use of the community talents that would otherwise lie dormant.

Come, brother farmers, stir yourselves, do not let another month pass without the formation of a county society, and by no means permit another year to pass without at least a vigorous effort to revive our State Agricultural Society.

We clip the above from the last Field and Fireside in order to endorse the proposition.—It cannot be doubted that agricultural associations contributed greatly to the improvement of the farming and domestic interests of the State before the war. The necessity for them, is perhaps ten fold greater now. Whatever will tend to improve and add to the skill and success of agricultural labor, in tillage, stock raising &c., must be of vast benefit to our struggling and poverty stricken people. We hope to see the people moving in this direction. Edgecombe we believe, has set the example and we hope to see it generally followed.

RIOT IN GOLDSBORO'.—Passengers by the train from Goldsboro' last night, inform us that a disturbance occurred at that place yesterday afternoon, about one o'clock, between some negroes and the police of said town. A negro had been arrested, and in default of bail, was ordered to prison, when he resisted and some of his comrades attempted to rescue him from Mr. Morrell, chief of police. Mr. Morrell, it is said, made several effectual shots at the negro who interfered, inflicting mortal wounds. The prisoner shot at Mr. Morrell, and in turn Mr. Morrell returned the fire, and the negro was killed almost instantly. We regret to learn that Mr. Morrell, who acted a most noble part in the matter, was severely cut in several places by the negro who attempted to interfere, and who Mr. Morrell killed while in the discharge of his duties as chief of police.

We learn that a negro by the name of Galloway was instrumental in creating the disturbance. This man Galloway is well known in this community. We hear that Galloway made his escape. The negro that was ordered to prison was in a critical condition—not expected to live.

Gentlemen who give us the above information speak highly of the conduct of the Major in command of the Freedmen's Bureau on the occasion, and also of Lieut. Granger, in charge of the U. S. guard at Goldsboro'. These gentlemen are said to have acted most nobly in the whole matter.—Wil. Journal.

Salmon P. Chase.

Salmon P. Chase is understood to be an advocate of all the radical measures adopted by the present Congress for the overthrow of State Rights and the establishment of a consolidated and despotic central government. Taken in connection with this fact, the following extract from Mr. Chase's speech in the United States Senate in 1850, on the Fugitive Slave Law, will be found suggestive:

Sir, this is a bill for the overthrow of State Rights. It is a bill to establish a great central, consolidated federal government. Sir, there was once a Senator from South Carolina on this floor too clear sighted not to perceive that the enactment of a Fugitive Slave Act was utterly irreconcilable with that theory of State Rights which he in common with South Carolina's greatest statesman, professed to believe in, and too noble and ingenuous to deny the inconsistency.

Sir, the Senator from South Carolina spoke in a spirit worthy of South Carolina. A slaveholder and a defender of slavery, he would neither conceal his real opinion, nor ask for any advantage for his section or his class at the expense of a violated Constitution. Would that a like spirit had controlled other Senators who have represented State Rights constituents, and profess State Right doctrines.

I have certainly answered the Senator, very distinctly and candidly, I said that I knew of no remedy in case of the refusal of a State to perform its stipulations.

DEATH OF A GOOD CITIZEN.—Mr. Thomas McNeely, a good and highly respected citizen, died at his residence in this city yesterday evening. Mr. McNeely has been for many years Clerk of our Superior Court. He was a good man, much loved by all who knew him. He leaves several children, and many warm friends to mourn his death.—Salisbury Banner.

STATE CONVENTION.

ADJOURNED SESSION.

WEDNESDAY, June 6, 1866.

The Convention was called to order at ten o'clock A. M. Prayer by Rev. Dr. Mason of the Episcopal Church. The Journal of yesterday was read and approved.

By Mr. Jarvis; the petition of A. E. Jacobs, of Currituck county, praying relief from tax on a billiard-table.

By Mr. Buxton; a petition of Henry Ingold, of Cumberland county, praying to be settled on a farm.

By Mr. Adams; a petition from citizens of Davidson county, praying the Convention to give the people the right of electing Judges, Solicitors, &c.

Mr. Ward, from the committee on Corporations, reported back an ordinance to incorporate the North Carolina Petroleum and Mining Company, recommending its passage.

On motion of Mr. Settle, the rules were suspended and the ordinance put on its second reading. On motion of Mr. McKay, of Harnett, the ordinance was amended by adding a proviso, subjecting the Company to the tax imposed by sections 1 and 2 under schedule C of the Revenue Law.

The ordinance as amended, passed its 2nd. and 3rd. readings.

On motion of Mr. Davidson, the Convention took up a resolution (heretofore introduced by himself,) to raise a committee of eleven to inquire and report, relative to the debts of the State created during the war—specifying which were in aid of the rebellion, and which not, &c.

The resolution was adopted, and the President appointed the following committee, viz:

Mr. Allen introduced an ordinance in relation to the Rail Roads of the State, which was referred to the committee on Corporations.

Mr. Walkup, an ordinance to authorize the speedy trial of minor offences before three Justices of the Peace.

Mr. Grissom, from a select committee, reported back an ordinance to authorize an exchange of State bonds for certain causes, recommending its passage with an amendment.

On motion of Mr. Grissom the rules were suspended and the Convention proceeded to consider the ordinance.

Sundry amendments were offered, and the ordinance, after some discussion was recommitted, on motion of Mr. Moore, of Wake.

Mr. McDonald, of Moore, moved that the Convention, take up the report of the committee on Federal relations, being resolutions to send Commissioners to Washington city. Not agreed to, ayes 42, nays 45.

Mr. Ferebee moved to take up his resolution, (introduced on yesterday,) to raise a committee to inquire whether the objects for which this Convention was called have not been accomplished, and report a resolution fixing a time for adjournment. Not agreed to.

UNFINISHED BUSINESS.

The Convention proceeded to the further consideration of the amended Constitution—the substitute for article III, (except the three last sections) being the pending amendment.

On motion of Mr. Winston, section 2 of this amendment was amended by inserting the word "white" after the word "native." (Requires Governor and Lieutenant Governor to be "native, white, citizens of the United States.")

Mr. McCorkle offered an amendment to this section, requiring the Governor and Lieutenant Governor, to have been citizens of the State and of the United States for the last five years preceding election. Adopted.

Mr. Logan, an amendment requiring these officers to take an oath that they are constitutionally qualified.

Pending this amendment, this section (2nd) was passed over informally for the present, on motion of Mr. Moore, of Wake.

Section 4 was amended, on motion of Mr. Moore of Wake, by striking out in the 12th line the words "for which they were voted" after the word "office."

Section 5 was amended, on motion of Mr. Phillips, by inserting the words "a joint vote of" before the words "both Houses of the General Assembly." [Requires contested elections for Governor and Lt. Governor to be determined by a "joint vote of," &c.]

Mr. Winston moved to amend the 4th section by requiring returns in elections for Governor and Lt. Governor to be directed to the Speaker of the House of Commons, instead of to the Speaker of the Senate, as heretofore. Adopted.

The amendment (above) offered by Mr. Logan, to the 2nd section, was here adopted as an independent section. [Requires oath that they are qualified to be taken by Governor and Lt. Governor.]

Mr. Furches moved to amend the 10th section, by fixing the salary of Lieutenant Governor, at the amount of per diem allowed the Speaker of the House of Commons during sessions of the Legislature, and providing that in the event of the Governor's death—he shall receive the salary of Governor.

Mr. Moore, of Wake, regarded the latter clause of this amendment as mere surplusage, which should be avoided. He was opposed to the first proposition because the Constitution fixes the salary of no other officer, and he thought it should be left to the Legislature to determine what salary should attach to the office of Lieutenant Governor. For one, he hoped the General Assembly would give that officer such salary as would render it desirable, and would command the highest order of talent.

The question recurring, the amendment was rejected.

Mr. Caldwell, of Burke, moved to amend section 11 by striking out the words "which shall not be increased or diminished during his continuance in office. (Relates to the compensation of Lieutenant Governor.

Mr. Henry moved to amend the amendment by striking out only the words "increased or." Not agreed to.

The question recurring on the amendment it was adopted.

Mr. Logan moved to amend section 10 by providing that Speakers of the Senate and House of Commons shall hold their offices (to fill vacancies in the office of Governor) until their successors are appointed. Not agreed to.

Sec. 6 was amended on motion of Mr. Moore, of Wake, by striking out the words "Chief Justice" before the words "of the Supreme Court," and insert the words "any number."—(That the Governor's oath of office may be taken before any member of the Supreme Court.)

An additional section, authorizing the administration of the official oaths, in the same manner when vacancies occur, was also adopted on motion of Mr. Moore.

The Convention proceeded to consider the substitute proposed for certain sections of article IV—in relation to the Judicial Department.

Section 2nd. of this amendment proposes that "the Supreme Court shall consist of a Chief Justice and two or four Associate Justices," to be elected by joint vote of the two Houses of the General Assembly.

Mr. Thompson moved to amend this section by striking out the words "or four." Mr Thompson was in favor of fixing definitely the number of Judges of the Supreme Court, whatever the number may be. He was utterly opposed to giving the Legislature the power to increase the number of the Judges, and thus to obtain the reversal of decisions obnoxious to popular sentiment. The Judicial department was already the weakest department of the Government. It had not the power to protect itself, and if the number of Judges was left to Legislative option, the Judicial Department would be placed at the mercy of the General Assembly.

Mr. Boyden was in favor of increasing the number of Supreme Court Judges, but was willing that the number should be definitely fixed in the Constitution.

Mr. Eaton favored the amendment and fully concurred in the views expressed by Mr. Thompson. He was not only desirous that the number of Judges should be irrevocably fixed, but he preferred the smallest number named. If the section passes without amendment it will be in the power of the Legislature to pack a court to suit itself and pander to popular prejudice.

The question recurring, the amendment was adopted as follows: the yeas and nays were ordered on motion of Mr. Clark.

YEAS.—Messrs Allen, Bagley, Baines, Baker, Barrow, Beam, Berry, Bradley, Brickell, Brooks, Bryan, Burgin, Buxton, Caldwell of Burke, Caldwell, of Guilford, Cowper, Dickey, Eaton, Ellis, Faulkner, Furches, Gahagan, Garland, Garrett, Godwin, Harris, of Guilford, Haynes, Johnston, Jones, of Davidson, Jones, of Henderson, Joyce, Joyner, King, Lash, Love, of Chatham, Love, of Jackson, Lyon, McCauley, McKay, of Harnett, McDonald, of Chatham, McDonald, of Moore, McGehee, McIvor, Nat. McLean, McRae, Mebane, Moore, of Chatham, Murphy, Odom, Pearsall, Perkins, Person, Phillips, Polk, Rumley, Russell, Settle, Simmons, Sloan, Smith, of Johnston, Smith, of Wilkes, Spencer, of Hyde, Starbuck, Stewart, Swan, Thompson, Walkup, Ward, Willey, Williams, Wilson, Winburne, Winston.—73.

NAYS.—Messrs. Adams, Alexander, Bell, Bingham, Boyden, Clark, Conigland, Dick, Dockery, Ferebee, Foy, Gilliam, Grissom, Harris, of Rutherford, Harrison, Henry, Jackson, Jarvis, Jones, of Rowan, Logan, McCorkle, McKoy, of Sampson, N. A. McLean, McLaughlin, Moore, of Wake, Norfleet, Patterson, Richardson, Rush, Smith, of Anson, Spencer, of Montgomery, Stephenson, Wright.—33.

On motion of Mr Grissom the Convention took his resolution, (introduced on yesterday,) that from and after to-day the Convention hold evening sessions.

Messrs. Grissom and Mebane advocated the resolution.

Mr. Moore, of Wake, opposed it.

On motion of Mr. Grissom the yeas and nays were ordered.

AYES.—Messrs. Allen, Baker, Barrow, Bingham, Burgin, Caldwell, of Burke, Conigland, Dick, Dickey, Ellis, Foy, Garland, Garrett, Godwin, Harris, of Rutherford, Harrison, Henry, Jones, of Rowan, Lash, Logan, Love, of Jackson, McCauley, McCorkle, McKay, of Harnett, McDonald, of Chatham, McDonald, of Moore, Moore, of Wake, Murphy, Norfleet, Patterson, Rumley, Smith, of Johnston, Smith, of Wilkes, Starbuck, Stewart, Swan, Thompson, Williams, Winburne, and Wright—40.

The question recurring on the adoption of the resolution, Mr. Henry moved that the Convention adjourn until 10 o'clock to-morrow.

On this question, the yeas and nays were ordered, on motion of Mr. Furches.

The resolution was then adopted.

Mr. McDonald, of Moore, rising to a personal explanation said:

In the Sentinel of June the 5th, I find the following language: "The point was well and forcibly pressed by Mr. Clarke, of Craven, in the debate in the Convention, on Saturday, that the resolutions of Mr. McDonald, of Moore, were, in their present verbiage and shape, an indirect if not a positive endorsement of the Radicals of Congress." The preamble to the resolutions express the hope that was felt, "that the President, (during the recess of the Convention,) would have been authorized by Congress to declare the State restored to the Union." Now the drawer of the resolutions in his place, in this Convention, most positively declares that he does not, either directly or indirectly indorse the Radicals in Congress, nor does he say, either directly or indirectly, that President Johnson has done what he had no right to do, and the language properly construed, does not mean any such thing.

But he did mean to say, that it was hoped that Congress would admit the Representatives elect from North Carolina to their seats in Congress, that the Constitution as amended by the Convention and ratified by the people, would be declared to be republican in form, and upon this action being had in Congress, which is necessary to the practical restoration of the State to the Union; then the President would issue his proclamation declaring that North Carolina was fully restored to her proper position in the Union, and that the citizens of the State were entitled to all the protection, rights and privileges which flowed to them, from being practically under the Constitution of the United States.

We are theoretically in the Union, but practically out of it. And the object of the resolutions is to get the parties together, that they may talk and reason together, and if possible, bring about that reconciliation and concord of action which is so necessary to our national prosperity and union.

On motion of Mr. Mebane, the Convention adjourned until ten o'clock to-morrow.

ROBBERY.—On Thursday night last some persons effected an entrance into the powder magazine of Messrs. O. G. Parsley & Co., situated just north of the Wilmington & Weldon Rail Road, and abstracted therefrom a quantity of powder, in all about 225 pounds. There was at the time a considerable quantity of powder in the magazine, partly in kegs and partly in canisters. The kegs were not molested, but several boxes containing canisters were broken open and the contents abstracted.—Wil. Journal.

Col. Stokes, a member elect from Tennessee, but who is excluded from Congress by the Radicals, thinks the best way to get in, is to praise the Radicals for keeping him out. This, and an affront by the President for refusing, as we are told by the Washington Republican, to appoint to office a personal enemy whom Stokes had been so indelicate as to press upon him, has put him upon the tramp in behalf of the Radicals, and he is making speeches at the North wherever they will listen to him. Some one who wants a name for a dog that he does not value, will find Stokes's to answer very well.—Richmond Enquirer.

CITY AND STATE ITEMS.

TRIAL OF MAJOR JOHN H. GEE.

SYNOPSIS OF TESTIMONY.

FIFTY-SECOND DAY.

TUESDAY, May 22, 1866.

Mr. Palmer, witness for the prosecution, recalled for the defence.—The hospital report, I got from a drawer in Maj. Morfitt's office; I took it with me when I left.

(Paper shown witness.) I obtained this at the time; this was an order for commandants of prisons to forward weekly reports of prisoners to Richmond.

We slept in the office, the up floor was over Mr. Lewis' bed. I hung it on a nail on the wall, it was not interfered with; Mr. Lewis took it when we left.

I was at the depot when the men who had joined the Confederate service returned. I judge there were about 150. Recollect Mr. Gee giving Mr. Campbell a written permission to go to Mr. Kein's till he got well, think he was gone several weeks.

I heard a conversation at the time Gen. Winder visited the prison soon after the outbreak; Gen. Winder sat about three feet from me.—Morfitt was telling of Hoke taking wood and spoke of Maj. Gee. Winder told him he must take his orders from him or from the Quartermaster's Department and his course would be approved, not to take his orders from Maj. Gee.

Recollect Maj. Gee asking the Quartermaster for wood, he said the regular amount had been furnished.

Mr. Lyerly applied to me to go out as a clerk and I told him I would it my duties were not prejudicial to my duties as a soldier, I went out. Mr. Lyerly came to me to take the names of some galvanized Yankees one morning, I refused, Maj. Gee sustained me; I went to his office and made my compaint; he gave me to understand that Mr. Lyerly was not to injure me in any way.

Lyerly's word was law in the prison; I have seen him sign his name "J. A. Lyerly, Superintendent of prison."

The prisoners of war very seldom obeyed the chiefs of divisions. When they took the order they did it through fear of Mr. Lyerly, we supposed.

I have heard Major Gee state that he wished to have a pipe brought from the stream through the prison yard. Have heard him speak to Nichols to exert himself to bring down all the rations he could. It was a general remark.—Have heard him say that he would not let officers recruit till they had shown their orders.

I never saw a notice for recruits signed by him. His conduct toward prisoners was kind. Escaped prisoners who returned were turned in. In one instance he gave food to an escaped prisoner. At the time the officer was stopped from kicking the prisoner, there were a good many around.

One night there were some prisoners of war, ten or twelve, making a noise in Major Gee's office, and he said if to let them remain I would be responsible. They had been brought out to make lists of those who were to be paroled.—He often expressed himself anxious for an exchange, and brought papers out to show us.

He never asked one of us to do the slightest thing derogatory to our duty to the U. S. Govment.

S. M. Parish, Grocer, Raleigh.—Was Lieutenant in the Bureau of Conscription, stationed at this place. Millers were exempt, I think, till March, 1864. Instructions were issued under which they were allowed to make applications. A great many were issued. There was an order in October of the same year, that forbade officers from giving any more details and send the parties to camp—to put them in the army.

That order would have put all the males in but through the influence of Maj. Sloan, a great many were allowed to remain at home.

There were constant applications at our office—after this order the instructions were more stringent.

The surplus after a certain amount he could sell to soldiers families or to the government.—They could not sell it to any one else.

Cross-Examined.—All millers working under a government contract till the order of October, were exempted. That order took all, if it had been promptly executed.

Re-Direct.—The Secretary of war was to make the details after they were put in the army.

The millers were allowed to remain while the applications were pending.

FIFTY-THIRD DAY.

WEDNESDAY, May 23, 1866.

I visited Salisbury in January, 1865, to relieve the sufferings of a Federal prisoner. I had, in some instances, got exchanges for prisoners of war. I called at the prison and am not certain whether I saw Maj. Gee. I saw some officers of the prison. They asked whether I would go in or have him brought out. I saw him, and he said he had been supplied.

I went around and examined the prison. I saw most of the prisoners in a very bad condition. The grounds were bad, and evidently required great exertion to drain them, and the officers seemed very anxious to alleviate their sufferings. They said that unexpectedly, a large number had been thrown upon them, and supplies cut off. They said gentlemen in the neighborhood had tried to assist them.

I recognize Maj. Gee as one of these officers.—These statements were to be made to Richmond to show that it was not a suitable place for a prison. I think Dr. Magill was present. The officer spoke very freely of the difficulty in getting supplies and of treating these prisoners as they ought to be treated, and tourge this upon the authorities at Richmond, and then desire to get an exchange. I stated this at Richmond.

Cross-Examined.—I cant state that Maj. Gee was the person with whom I conversed. One half of the time I was there was spent in the office. I was not acting officially. I wanted to satisfy myself that the reports I had heard were true.

To Court.—These charges were copied from Northern papers.

FUNERAL.—The remains of Mrs. Col. Baker, daughter of the late Hon. W. H. Haywood, arrived on the cars from New York on Tuesday night, and her funeral was largely attended from the Episcopal Church at 5 o'clock, P. M. on yesterday.

This once large and interesting family have passed through eight instances of sad bereavement within the last four years. A doting mother has been robbed by death of four children and four grand children, in the brief period of four years. The family has the sympathies and prayers of numerous friends.

EXAMINING COURT.—The case of Mr. Hodge, charged with the killing of Mr. Sturdevant, was brought before Judges Gilliam, Warren, and Buxton, we learn for committal or bail on yesterday. The Attorney General was represented by Col. Ed. Graham Haywood and the defence was conducted by Messrs. B. F. Moore and S. F. Phillips, Esqs. The examination of witnesses consumed much time, and up to the present writing we have not heard the result.

RALEIGH AND GASTON RAIL ROAD.—We are glad to see this popular Road putting on the steam a little stronger. Quick time and low fare is the order of the day. It will be seen that the schedule is changed to-day.

AN OPINION ABOUT FIGHTING.—We clip the following from General D. H. Hill's new Magazine. "The Land we Love:" A general officer riding alone two days after the retreat of Burnside, stopped to warm at a fire where a group of Cobb's brigade, which had defended the stonewall, was lying down in all the listlessness of the abandon after a fight. The officer had on a common soldier's overcoat, and was welcomed as a cavalryman to the fireside. A country lad, a farmer boy at home, gave him a graphic description of the fierce assault and terrible repulse, in his own simple style, ending his narrative with his ingenuous comments upon fighting in general. "I have hearn men say that they were spilin for a fight, but I never did spile for a fight. Stranger I've been in every fight with my rigi-ment, but I never did like fighting. But when we was killing them Yankees so purty behind that are wall, and they wasn't hurting us, I was rale sorry to see 'em run. And I tell you, Mr. Stuart's man, that was the only time I ever did like fighting."

Mr. Stuart's man thanked him for his narrative, mounted and rode on, reflecting upon certain furious war speeches he had heard from men whose warlike exploits in the field had not yet become the theme of poetry and of song.

THE TRUTH TOLD BY A RADICAL.—The Rev. R. J. Breckinridge, of Kentucky, says the Philadelphia Age, distinguished during the war as one of the most active pulpit champions of the Federal cause, and temporary President of the Baltimore Convention which renominated Mr. Lincoln, has recently written a letter concerning the future of the blacks to the Northwestern Presbyterian, in which we find this paragraph:

"The great danger of this people is, that they will gradually waste away in the struggle they have now to make in competition with the stronger race for the means of existence—a danger in the face of which exorbitant and unprecedented claims on their behalf are the more melancholy as they are preposterous."

General Scott.

General Winfield Scott was born in Dinwiddie Co., Va., on June 13, 1786, and was consequently at the time of his death eighty years of age. He studied law at William and Mary College, and after practicing his profession for a few years, was in 1808 appointed captain of artillery, and stationed at Baton Rouge. On account of some remarks uttered by him in relation to the conspiracy of Aaron Burr, he was suspended from duty and returned to his native State. In July, 1812, he was promoted to the rank of Lieutenant-colonel, and ordered to the Canada frontier, where he took a prominent part in the affair of Queenstown heights. Soon after the capture of York, Upper Canada, General Scott was appointed adjutant general on the staff of General Dearborn, with the rank of colonel. In the combined attack upon Fort George, in 1813, he commanded the advance, and was severely hurt by a flying piece of timber. In 1814 he was made brigadier-general, and established a camp of instruction at Buffalo, and on July 3d, 1814, he, with Ripley's and his own brigade, defeated the British at Chippewa. On July 23, 1814, he fought the battle of Lundy's Lane, where he had two horses killed under him, and was severely wounded. Soon afterwards he was promoted to the rank of major-general, and visited the continent of Europe in 1815. In 1825 he published General Regulations for the Army, and in 1835 Infantry Tactics, from the French, both of which works were adopted as text books by the United States Government. In 1832 he took part in the war with the Sacs and Foxes, which was carried to a successful termination. At the time of the nullification troubles in South Carolina, Scott commanded the Federal troops in that State; and in 1839 he paved the way, as mediator, to the negotiation which ended in the Ashburton Treaty between the United States and Great Britain. After the capture of Monterey, in the Mexican war, General Scott was assigned to the chief command of the United States army in Mexico, and on March 9, 1847, he landed twelve thousand men at Vera Cruz, which city was captured three weeks afterwards. On April 19th he gained the battle of Cerro Gordo; and on August 2d, he gained a victory at Cherubusco. On September 13, Chapultepec was fought; and on the morning of the 14th, the United States army entered the city of Mexico.

In 1852 General Scott was the Whig nominee for President received 1,386,580 votes against 1,601,274 received by the Democratic candidate.

At the commencement of the late war, in 1861, General Scott did not resign his commission and tender his sword to his native State, but remained in the service of the United States. His advanced age prevented him, however, from retaining a command, and on November 1, 1861, he retired from active service with full pay and allowances. He then visited Europe, and was received with great distinction, but failed to restore his broken health.

From the time of his return from Europe until his death, General Scott lived in great retirement, only broken by an occasional interview with some military celebrity upon whom he desired to confer the honor of his praise. The verdict of history has already been passed upon the merits of Winfield Scott as a general, and of his errors or virtues as a man it is not, perhaps, becoming in us to speak. Where we can not praise, we do not wish to condemn, and the dead at last shall always be free from any but the most charitable and merciful criticism.—Richmond Dispatch.

THE CONVENTION.—In the published proceedings of our State Convention we see that a very important Resolution has been adopted, as follows:

"A resolution removing the water closet from the Capitol was adopted."

That is news! We read in ancient history that the Roman Senate was engaged just before the fall of that Republic in discussing one whole day the best manner to cook a pig. We wonder how may speeches were made upon the "water closet business" in our State Convention. —Weldon State.

MORE FIRES.—The Bridge over Alligator Creek, on the Wilmington & Manchester Rail Road, about one mile from this place, caught fire by some means yesterday, but was extinguished before any serious damage was done.—The fire is supposed to have originated accidentally.—Wilmington Journal.

Order for the Arrest of the Fenians.

By direction of the President, Attorney General Speed had issued a circular to District Attorneys and Marshalls, instructing them to arrest all prominent leaders or conspicuous persons called Fenians, who are or may be guilty of a violation of the neutrality laws.

The Fenian prisoners at Buffalo have been released by order of the Government. The men on their own recognizance and officers on $500 bail—all to appear at Canandiagua when required, and to subscribe that they will not take up arms.

Special advices received, leave no doubt that a large body of Fenians still threaten Canada.

Great alarm was felt at Montreal. There was a monetary panic and a run had been made upon the Saving's Bank. Gold was at a high premium.

European News.

WASHINGTON, June 6.

Advices from Europe to the 27th ult., received at Halifax, via Queenstown, by the Africa, confirms the report that three of the neutral powers of Europe have addressed identical notes to Berlin, Vienna, Florence, and Frankfort, inviting a conference. It is believed all will assemble, but no reply had been received from Austria.

Warlike preparations continued. Continental news was unchanged. Kossuth, acting in concert with the Italians, is endeavoring to excite a Hungarian revolution.

Large arrivals of specie from America had caused a better feeling and reaction set in on London 'change.

New York Markets.

NEW YORK June 6.

At Liverpool on the evening of the 26th, Cotton firmer, but unchanged. Sales 10,000 bales. There is a general improvement on the stock exchange at London. Warlike preparations continued.

U. S. Circuit Court at Richmond

RICHMOND, June 1.

U. S. Court met to-day, Judge Underwood made a violent charge to the Grand Jury, denouncing Richmond as a slave-trading city, its press licentious and treasonable. W. B. Reed, Esq., asked in behalf of Jefferson Davis, if it was proposed to try him, or dismiss the indictment, or suspend it. Hennessey, Assistant District Attorney was unprepared to answer in the absence of Mr. Chandler, the District Attorney.—He would be present to-morrow, if not Hennessey would answer. The Court then adjourned.

Fenian Fillibustering Quelched.

NEW YORK, Jan. 5.

The rumors of columns of Fenians marching into Canada, are not confirmed. Sweeney is said to be at Malone, N. Y. but the probabilities are that the invasion is at an end. President Roberts however, has issued a stirring address to Irishmen and promotes Col. O'Neal to a Brigadier Generalship for gallantry. Arms belonging to Fenians have been seized at various points and the U. States is using all efforts to preserve neutrality. Head Centre Stephens declares the movement crushed. Warrants have been issued by the U. S. Commissioners to apprehend Fenian officers now on board U. S. Steamer Michigan for examination before the Commission at Buffaloe, who will decide whether they shall be held for trial. Writs of habeas corpus have been served, but the hearing has been postponed to give Commander Bryson, of the Michigan, time to consult the government authorities.

Washington Matters.

WASHINGTON, June 5.

The Senate has confirmed as Collectors of the Customs, Albert Elmore, at Mobile, and Joshua Hill, at Savannah.

The published statements give the public debt, less the Cash in Treasury at $2,670,288,000. Decrease 19 millions in May. The cash in the Treasury is stated to be nearly one hundred and thirty millions.

General News.

WASHINGTON, June 5.

The Congressional proceedings to-day are devoid of interest. Poland Howard spoke in the Senate in favor of his reconstruction bill. The debate will continue.

Cholera.

At New York Quarantine the condition of the patients is deplorable. The hospital ship Falcon is full. No more can be cared for. Five vessels are quarantined within two miles, having on board Cholera, Yellow Fever and Small Pox. A Clergyman and two nurses, sent out to the hospital ship, were all attacked with Cholera.

New York Market.

NEW YORK, Jan. 5.

Cotton buoyant at 37 to 39. Sugar closed buoyant. Coffee firm. Molasses is dull. Gold 146¾!!

MORE WORK FOR THEM.—The Nashville Union says one of the Radical leaders has written to the editor of the Radical newspaper in Nashville:

"See Governor Brownlow and tell him to urge the Legislature not to adjourn sine die, but take a recess. There is yet more work to do."

Such are the orders under which the Tennessee Government is "worked," at this time. Perhaps the "Constitutional Amendment" is the next grist to be ground.—Richmond Enquirer.

In my family they have been used frequently with eminent success. Among my acquaintances, many cases originating from diseased liver, have been relieved and cured by them. A NEW AND GRAND EPOCH IN MEDICINE!

DR. MAGGIEL is the founder of a new Medical System! The quantitarians, whose vast internal doses enfeeble the stomach and paralyze the bowels, must give precedence to the man who restores health and appetite, with from one to two of his extraordinary Pills, and cures the most virulent sore with a box or so of his wonderful and all healing Salve. These two great specifics of the Doctor are fast supersceding all the stereotyped nostrums of the day. Extraordinary cures by Maggiel's Pills and Salve have opened the eyes of the public to the inefficiency of the (so called) remedies of others, and upon which people have so long blindly depended. Maggiel's Pills are not of the class that are swallowed by the dozen, and of which every box but taken creates an absolute necessity for another. One or two of Maggiel's Pills suffices to place the bowels in perfect order, tone the stomach, create an appetite, and render the spirits light and buoyant! There is no griping, and no reaction in the form of constipation. If the liver is affected, its functions are restored; and if the nervous system is feeble it is invigorated. This last quality makes the medicines very desirable for the wants of delicate females. Cancerous and eruptive diseases are literally extinguished by the disenfectant power of Maggiel's Salve. In fact, it is here announced that Maggiel's Bilious, Dyspeptic and Diarrhea Pills cure where all others fail. Wells for Burns, Scalds, Chilblains, Cuts and all abrasions of the skin Maggiel's Salve is infallible. Sold by J. MAGGIEL, 43 Fulton Street, New York, and all Druggists, at 25 cts. per box. Sold by all Druggists in Raleigh.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla

IS a concentrated extract of the choice root, so combined with other substances of still greater alterative power as to afford an effectual antidote for diseases Sarsaparilla is reputed to cure. Such a remedy is surely wanted by those who suffer from Strumous complaints, and that one which will accomplish their cure must prove, as it is, a blessing of immense magnitude to this large class of our afflicted fellow citizens. How completely this compound will do it has been proven by experiment on many of the worst cases to be found in the following complaints:

Scrotula, Scrofulous Swellings and Sores, Skin Diseases, Pimples, Pustules, Blotches, Eruptions St. Anthony's Fire, Rose or Erysipelas, Tetter or Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Ringworm, &c.

Do not discard this invaluable medicine, because you have been imposed upon by something pretending to be Sarsaparilla, while it was not. When you have used Ayer's—then, and not till then, will you know the virtues of Sarsaparilla. For minute particulars of the diseases it cures, we refer you to Ayer's American Almanac, which the agents below named will furnish gratis to all who call for it.

They are sugar coated, so that the most sensitive can take them pleasantly, and they are the best Aperient in the world for all the purposes of a family physic.

Williams & Haywood, P. F. Pescud, Raleigh, N. C., and Dealers generally.

COLUMBUS, GA.

WE have received the manufacture of Cot by 1st in this city, and will be prepared to fill orders repre- June next. As we shall not be, as heretofore, Gins, sented by traveling agents, parties wishing our an will confer a favor by sending in their orders a early day. As owing to the demand, we shall be able to keep a stock in the hands of our local agents as it was our practice before the war. All business transactions being now reduced to cash, our sales will be made on the basis of ready pay.

Our Gins are too well known to require any special notice or commendation; we believe they are unrivalled in the chief points of excellence which go to make up a superior machine, namely: Speed light, draught and good sample.

Our DOUBLE CYLINDER GINS will be found superior to the single cylinder, when parties have steam or good water power, to give them the necessary speed. In all cases when this can be done, we recommend them in preference to the single cylinder. If, however, indifferent or insufficient power is used, they will not do as well as the single Gin.

WHITE SULPHUR AND CHALYBEATE SPRINGS.

THE UNDERSIGNED has the satisfaction of announcing to the public, that he has leased these celebrated Springs, and that they will be opened for the reception of visitors on the first day of June ensuing.

His arrangements are of that complete and extensive character, that he will be able to accommodate a large number of guests and to offer greater attractions than usual to those who may visit

This pleasant and healthful resort.

No trouble or expense will be spared to render his patrons comfortable and satisfied.

The grounds are elegantly laid off, and the buildings are enlarged and improved.

He will have ICE, MILK, VEGETABLES, and all the substantials and delicacies of the table in profusion.

An ICE CREAM SALOON and SODA FOUNTAIN will be attached to the establishment, where those refreshments, as well as CONFECTIONERY, Fruits &c., can be always obtained.

The bar will be supplied with the finest liquors, and a billiard saloon and bowling alley, for amusement and exercise, be at the disposal of visitors.

The Medicinal Properties

Of the Sulphur water have been amply tested during many years by a large number of visitors, and its beneficial results strikingly displayed in the cure or relief of

Another Spring has been discovered in the vicinity of the establishment, an accurate scientific analysis of which [given below] proves that it is a valuable Chalybeate. It is a mild and gentle tonic, and in the opinion of the physicians who have examined it, and witnessed its effects in some cases during several seasons, must prove beneficial in Atonic Dyspepsia, Chlorosis, Uterine, Nervous and Neuralgic Affections connected with Debility; and of especial service to persons living in malarious regions of country, whose blood has been robbed of its normal proportion of iron by repeated attacks of malarial fevers.

Persons travelling on the Raleigh and Gaston Railroad will always find a line of stages, under the management of Mr. Granger, ready for their accommodation at Warrenton Depot. There will be a daily mail from Warrenton to the Springs.

NOTICE, OF

Importance to all whom it may concern.

—READ.—

The undersigned, Agent of the ÆTNA LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY for the State of North Carolina, would respectfully inform those who represent deceased friends, insured in this Company, to apply at my office for the settlement of Policies, as soon as they can consistently and conveniently do so.

MR. JUSTUS KINSEY'S death has been announced in our community. He was one of our most worthy citizens and active business men, and took the precaution, in time, to provide for his now sorrowing household one by an insurance on his life for $5,000 in the gallant "Ætna," which has never refused to pay a loss promptly. And in this case the persons entitled to receive the amount will please present themselves and the policy at my office for payment.

Here we are furnished with an example of prudent forethought worthy of imitation by each and all who have hearts to love, and hands to provide for their dependent loved ones. The investment of $150 has provided

No man should neglect a transaction so important.

WM. H. CROW, Gen'l Agent.
